

Frameless balustrade and pool fencing

The pictures below show just a few options available in frameless balustrade and pool fencing. Depending upon the situation where they are to be fitted, they can be either surface or side mounted. The base support on either the pool fencing or balustrade can be spigot clamps, rather than the channel track shown if required. The stainless steel top rails can be round, rectangular and also offset from the glass panel.

